

The proposed plan by the city is not acceptable. Proment had submitted their plan for the development of the Pointe Nord years ago, which the city had then accepted. Proment's plan is more aesthetically pleasing, has more green space and was formulated after consulting with many architects, urban planners and designers. It also gives breathing room on the ground around the REM station.

I am against changing the Proment plan for the city plan.

Sévilla Dorotea