

Absolutely not. This is a residential area NOT a commercial banquet hall area. Moreover the use of the building was supposed to remain educational, not residential so the city of Outremont has already failed to live up to the expectations of its citizens who pay A LOT OF TAX!

Niki Nikolakakis