

To whom it may concern,

As a Nun's Island resident I am worried about the delay of the construction of the new school. I have two daughters with the oldest one will be starting school on September.

I live at William Paul and my daughter and I will be walking to school.

Regards,

Adriana Owen