

Horrible idea and killing off all wild life sectors in the west island. Focus on improving your town better in needed areas instead of being money tax hungry hounds. There is much improvement needed before you decide to kill off a wild life sector full of innocent animals...

Laura Hackett